DETAILED ACTION

1. The following communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed 19 May 2006.

Status of Claims

2. Claims 15, 17 and 19 are currently pending. Claims 1-13 have been withdrawn. Claims 14, 16 and 18 are cancelled.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 15, 17 and 19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Claims 15 and 19 stand rejected as discussed below. Claim 17 is allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 15 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3691

With respect to claim 15, the preamble reciting "A system and method" renders the claim indefinite because it is not clear whether Applicant is claiming a system or a method. The body of claim 15 suggests that claim 15 is directed towards the method for the exchange for the trading of contracts. The preamble is overlapping two statutory classes and thus claim 15 is indefinite. This rejection could be overcome by deleting "system" from the preamble.

With respect to claim 19, the preamble recites a system claim but the body of the claim contains no structure and instead is drawn towards a method. Therefore it is unclear whether claim 19 is drawn towards the system or a method. Since the preamble and the body of the claim appear to be claiming two different statutory classes claim 19 stands rejected for being indefinite. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 17 is allowed.
7. Claims 15 and 19 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
